

MIGRANTS IN NEW KNIFING EPISODE HERE

Clarence Ellis, 19, bearing 100 stitches used to close cuts in his left side, and Clay Thomas Wills, 37, who apparently had been hit in the mouth with a bottle, were placed in the county jail Friday night, both charged with aggravated assault and battery by state police.

Ellis, a resident of Wakefield, Va., and Wills, a resident of Miami, Fla., are members of a negro migrant worker crew under crew boss S. B. Wright, Polk, Fla., residing at the trailer camp of Mary H. Goulden, Gettysburg R. 2, police said.

State police were called when the Gettysburg ambulance was summoned about 5:30 o'clock Friday night to transport the badly cut Ellis to the Warner Hospital.

According to the officers, who are continuing their investigation, Ellis and Wills apparently got into a dispute, but police so far have been unable to determine the nature of the argument. Ellis then struck Wills in the mouth with a "coke bottle," police said they were told, "knocking his teeth out." Police believe the teeth were false.

Wills then used a razor on Ellis, cutting his left side and left side of his neck. Police were unclear whether a safety razor blade or a straight razor was used pending interrogation of the principals to-day at the jail.

Ellis was removed to the hospital and Wills was taken into custody by police. Later, after Ellis had been "sewed up," police took both men before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, filed the charges and removed them to the jail.

LARGE CROWD WELL PLEASED WITH CONCERT

The Roger Wagner Choral, the first of the Gettysburg Concert Association's series, gave a brilliant concert to an overflow audience in the Gettysburg College chapel Friday night.

The program of the choral was a delight to its listeners. Opening with three numbers from the Renaissance period (the 16th Century), the group did justice to the solemnity of the Ave Maria in a setting that would be difficult to duplicate. The response of the audience by its prolonged applause was an indication of the immediate appeal of the group. These numbers were sung without accompaniment.

The director, Roger Wagner, is a master in his art. His ambitious program which included composers up to the present day, his own interpretations of English, French and American folk songs as well as Negro spirituals, was artistically rendered by an excellent chorus.

SOLOISTS PLEASE
Miss Salli Terri sang the solo parts of several folk songs in a most effective style.

Blame Motorist In Local Accident

A Gettysburg motorist will be charged with turning into the path of an oncoming vehicle as the result of a two-car accident at the intersection of Liberty and York Sts. about 6 o'clock Friday evening, borough police reported.

They said that William H. Eller, 47, 33 Wall St., driving a 1947 Pontiac sedan west on York St., attempted to make a left turn on Liberty St. and, in doing so, failed to wait for an oncoming 1955 Pontiac sedan, driven by John M. Overbaugh, 201 Oxford Ave., McSherrystown.

Police said Overbaugh's right front fender struck the right side of the Eller car. Damage was $100 to the Eller car and $300 to Overbaugh's vehicle.

COUNTIAN IS WED TODAY IN NESQUEHONING

Miss Patricia Ann Donegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donegan, Nesquehoning, today became the bride of Herbert A. Wetzel, Wernersville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wetzel, Orrtanna R. 1, at 1:30 in Sacred Heart Church with the Rev. John J. "WORLD DOMINATION"

Continuing his address, the local resident said in part: "Today, we are involved in a so-called cold-war — but a war nonetheless. Our opponent is hostile, aggressive, atheistic communism, the greatest colonialist and imperialist nations on earth, the Sino-Soviet combination. They are spreading their ideology, their cancerous tentacles, into every crevice and corner of this globe. And they have stated time and time again that they will never let up until they dominate the world. Hitler wrote a book outlining what he planned to do — and we didn't pay attention to it and he did it — now with all the threats and statements of the last 40 years from communism, with all the broken agreements, with their continued intransigence whenever they meet — why do we not learn?"

"Certainly, humanity clamors for peace, and that is the hope and prayer of every thinking person."

Governor Will Plead To Save Berwick Plant

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence, shouldering the hopes of 15,000 stunned men, women and children, will make a last-ditch effort next week to talk to the American Car and Foundry Co. into abandoning plans to shut down its Berwick plant.

The governor's office announced Friday Lawrence has scheduled a meeting with company President William T. Taylor at 11 a.m., EST, Tuesday, in New York.

Expressing shock at the decision of American Car and Foundry to close its railroad car plant in Berwick by October 1962, Lawrence pledged to "do everything in his power to persuade the firm to change its mind."

The plant represents Berwick's chief industry, employing 2,600 men when at peak production. However, only 1,500 men are working now, the others having been laid off. Company officials say they must close the plant for economic reasons.

GENERAL PAUL SCORES REDS IN BOSTON TALK

"There can be no such thing as friendly, or peaceful coexistence with communism," declared Gen. Willard S. Paul, retired president of Gettysburg College, in an address in Boston this morning.

Before a cheering audience of veterans' organizations and their auxiliaries, including Massachusetts Governor John Volpe and Boston Mayor Collins, in the Hall of Flags in the Boston State House, the retired army officer declared:

"Realistically, peaceful coexistence is just what Khrushchev said it was, 'A Trojan horse tactic,' which they use as an opiate to dull us without committing themselves to anything."

Gen. Paul's audience also included a number of officers and men who served under his command in the Yankee Division in World War II.

Continuing his address, the local resident said in part: "Today, we are involved in a so-called cold-war — but a war nonetheless. Our opponent is hostile, aggressive, atheistic communism, the greatest colonialist and imperialist nations on earth, the Sino-Soviet combination. They are spreading their ideology, their cancerous tentacles, into every crevice and corner of this globe. Good Items On Market Today

Fall products were still in good quality and quantity at the Farmers' Market this morning with apples, cider, pumpkins and turnips heading the list.

Apples were 35 cents a quarter peck or 50 a half; cider, 60 cents a gallon; pumpkins, from five to 25 cents apiece, and turnips, 20 cents a box.

Other prices included: Potatoes, 25 cents a quarter peck and 40 a half peck; pears, 25 cents a box; red beets, 10 cents a bunch; quinces, 20 cents a box or two for 35; cabbage, five cents a pound; peppers, 15 cents a box; broccoli and endive, 10 cents a bunch; sweet potatoes, 35 cents a box, and apple butter, 50 cents a jar.

Eggs remained at 55-60 cents a dozen and potato salad was 25 cents a pint. Pies and cakes sold for various prices while chicken remained at 50 cents a pound.

72 BALLOTS THROWN OUT AS "SPOILED"

Seventy-two spoiled ballots were uncovered when the official count was made Friday afternoon.

Those who spoiled all or part of their ballots by errors included 29 who used both an X and a check mark on their ballots. Careful reading of the election code showed that voters may use either an X or a check mark, but they may not use both.

Eighteen persons erased marks they had placed on the ballots, thus invalidating them. The county election board again called attention of all voters to the fact that, if they make a mistake, the way to rectify it is to notify the election board, get a new ballot and start over — don't erase.

THREE CAST BLANKS

Thirteen persons left the numbered tabs on their ballots, thus invalidating their votes because the numbered tabs permit identification. They are to be torn off the ballot.

Three voters apparently decided they didn't like anything or anyone on the ballot — at least they did not put a single mark on the paper.

Four placed their "X" or check mark outside the block provided and thus lost their vote.

Among the 29 who used wrong markings, a small group had the election board puzzled. Since the use of X or a check mark is allowed, the board could understand those who changed from an X to a check mark or vice versa but they could not understand how a number of voters got the idea they could vote by drawing a circle in the box provided for voting.

Goodling; a history of the post office and postmasters in New Oxford, Charles S. Diller, Hanover, and a recitation "Ode to the Flag," Brenda Smith, a student in New Oxford High School.

C. P. Keefer, superintendent of Adams County schools, will serve as master of ceremonies.

The new one-story, L-shaped building, about 50 feet wide and 75 feet deep, is located at 4 Center Square, opposite the former post office. Gary-Allen Company, Harrisburg, was general contractor for the construction project.

$14,000 BLAZE AT GREEN COVE

Fire gutted the kitchen of Green Cove Inn, east of Abbotstown on the Lincoln Highway, Friday about 11 a.m. and caused $14,000 damages, but the action of the owner, Mrs. Kathryn Thierne, prevented flames from sweeping to other parts of the building.

"She left the windows and doors closed," Fire Chief George W. Moul of Lincoln Fire Company, Thomasville, reported. "That's the only thing that saved the building."

Smoke had filled the kitchen by the time Lincoln Fire Company arrived, Moul said. East Berlin and Abbotstown Fire Companies arrived shortly thereafter.

About 40 firemen using four pumpers and two tank trucks worked two hours to extinguish the fire, Moul said. They hauled water a quarter of a mile from a pond on the farm of Irvin H. Hostetter, Thomasville R. 1.

The inn is a two-and-a-half-story frame structure located five miles west of Thomasville.

A flare-up in an electric deep fryer was blamed for the fire.

Moul estimated damage to the contents of the kitchen at $8,000 and to the building at $6,000 and said the loss is covered by insurance.

Swope—Eyer

Miss Donna Lee Eyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Raymond Eyer, Taneytown R. 1, and Donald Charles Swope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Swope Sr., Fairfield R. 2, were married in the Keysville United Church of Christ, November 4, with the Rev. William F. Wiley, Taneytown, officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The organist was Miss Miriam Duble, playing the traditional wedding music. Two vocal selections were rendered by Elmer Shildt and his daughter, Miss Mary Catherine Shildt, Littlestown. They were "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me."

Miss Marguerite Lankford, Westminister R. 1, was maid of honor. The best man was Charles W. Swope Jr., Fairfield R. 2, brother of the groom. The ushers were C. Ernest Stonesifer, Key-mar R. 1, Md., cousin of the bride, and Robert Eugene Lupp, Gettysburg, cousin of the groom.

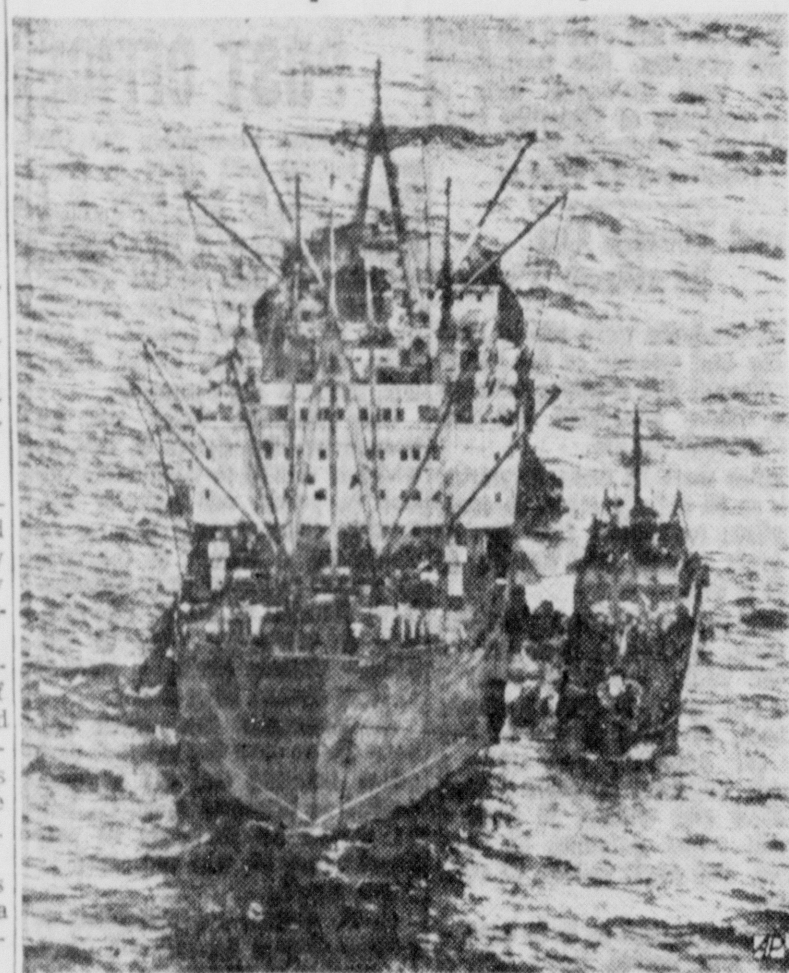

Following a reception at the parish hall of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to the Grand Canyon of Pennsylvania. Upon their return they will reside at Taneytown.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Taneytown High School and is presently employed as a bookkeeper in the Birnie Trust Co. of Taneytown. The groom attended Gettysburg High School, is presently employed at the Penn-Moc Shoe Co. in Fairfield and is affiliated with the Pennsylvania Army Reserves.

Social Security

Q. I have always operated my farm myself. This year I placed all the land I could in the soil bank. Does the soil bank payment I receive count in the $1,200 net profit I may earn and still receive all of my social security checks?

A. Yes, if you place part of your land in the soil bank and receive all the soil bank payment, then this amount would count for social security purposes.

Q. Some years ago I rented my farm. It was agreed that the renter had full responsibility for operating the farm. This year he and I decided to place part of the land in the Feed Grain Program. Does my share of this payment count in the $1,200 that I can earn?

A. Rental income from a farm counts for social security purposes only if the land owner materially participates in the production of the crop. Since your tenant has the full responsibility for the products raised on your farm, your share of the Feed Grain payment would not count for social security purposes.

Q. I have rented my farm out for one-half of the crops raised on the farm. Does my share count for social security?

A. Your share of the crops would count for social security purposes if you materially participated. Generally speaking material participation means taking a significant part in the production of the crops raised on your farm. If you would like a fuller explanation of material participation, write your nearest social security office and ask for booklet OASI-33d.

Q. I had my farm in the Soil Bank Program last year. This year I have placed part of my land in the new Feed Grain Program. The Soil Bank payments I received last year counted for social security purposes. Will the payments I receive this year also count for social security purposes?

A. The answer is yes. The same rules apply under the new Feed Grain Program as applied to Soil Bank.

TRUMAN AND EX-PRESIDENT MEET IN WEST

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower have buried the hatchet, and Truman was to speak today from a rostrum occupied Friday by Ike.

The two played leading roles in the rededication of the Liberty Memorial, a memorial to peace and the men who have fought for it. It was first dedicated 40 years ago.

Eisenhower, who commanded Allied forces in Europe in World War II, was the principal speaker on the first day of the two-day event.

Truman, who was a captain of artillery in World War I, was to be the speaker on this Veterans Day. He's an old hand at making speeches on Nov. 11, which originally was known as Armistice Day and marked the end of the war in which he fought.

GOES TO LIBRARY

The two former chiefs of state had been at odds since the 1952 political campaign, in which Eisenhower won his first term as president against Truman's bitter opposition.

Friday, on his arrival here, Eisenhower went directly from the airport to the Truman Memorial Library in adjoining Independence, Mo.

He found Truman standing at the door.

"Come in, come in," Truman said with a smile, as the two shook hands.

"It's good to see you again," Eisenhower replied.

It was the first time either had called on the other since Eisenhower's inauguration as Truman's successor in January 1953. Since then they had kept their distance except for a brief handshake at the funeral of Gen. George C. Marshall two years ago and a brief encounter at the funeral of Chief Justice Fred Vinson in 1953.

PRIVATE CONFERENCE

After exchanging greetings at the door of the library, they went to Truman's office, where they conferred in private for about 15 minutes. Then Truman escorted Eisenhower on the start of a tour through the library. He later excused himself and let the library director, Dr. Philip Brooks, conduct the remainder of the tour.

Truman said the meeting was arranged after Eisenhower had expressed to Joyce C. Hall, chairman of the rededication, a desire to see the Truman Library. A similar memorial in Eisenhower's name is located in Abilene, Kan., Ike's boyhood home, 150 miles west of Kansas City.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, has been refused permission by the U.S. State Department to go to Cuba to attend a labor convention.

Bridges had planned to attend a convention of the Cuban Labor Federation in Havana Nov. 11-13.

But the State Department ruled Bridges' trip would not be in the best interests of the United States.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Norman Grunfeld, 23, was left in tears Friday when he tried to sell his mother-in-law's car.

The dealer found a small device under the front seat and handed it to Grunfeld. The device exploded in Grunfeld's hand, spraying both men with tear gas.

No one knew who put it in the car.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—A real estate salesman was sentenced Friday to from 2 to 10 years in prison on his plea of guilty to stealing $670,000 worth of paintings from a Bel-Air mansion.

The salesman, Edward Ashdown, 39, Costa Mesa, Calif., forced his way into industrialist David E. Bright's home with a gun Sept. 10, locked a maid in a closet and took four modern masterpieces—two by Picasso.

After his arrest Ashdown said he had staged the theft to "make a big splash" in the newspapers. The paintings were returned.

Report Russia

Has 4-Point Proposal For Berlin Issue

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Puzzled U.S. officials awaited today clarification from Moscow of widely published reports that the Soviet Union has developed a four-point proposal for negotiation on a settlement of the Berlin crisis.

There was encouragement among high officials here as evidence that Soviet Premier Khrushchev seems to be moving into a negotiating position. But officials found no hint in the report of Soviet concessions that would give hope of an early East-West agreement on Berlin.

LACK OFFICIAL WORD

Furthermore, State Department informants said they lacked any official word from U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow to the effect that the Soviets had actually come up with a definite point-by-point proposition. On the contrary, word from Thompson Friday was that as far as he could judge basic Soviet policy on West Berlin stands unchanged.

The whole situation is due for discussion by State Department officials and diplomatic representatives of Britain, France and West Germany Monday.

Press dispatches from Moscow Thursday night told of what was described as a new four-point plan being advanced by the Soviet Union for a Berlin solution.

MAY FREE CITY

The essence of the proposal, as described in these dispatches, was that Russia and the United States, Britain and France would agree on a new status for West Berlin, guaranteeing the freedom of the city and access to it. East Germany would respect this new Soviet-Western agreement in an accord to be reached by Russia and the East German Communist regime. For their part, the Western powers would undertake to respect the sovereignty of East Germany.

The agreements between Russia and the Western powers would be worked out in advance of Khrushchev's proposed Soviet peace treaty with East Germany.

Slain Couple's Son Is Indicted

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The Montgomery County grand jury has returned a true bill charging a firearms violation against the son of a couple whose murder last March remains unsolved.

Dist. Atty. Harold W. Spencer said he will seek extradition of Paige Russell Blakely Jr., August 21 Springs, Va.

Spencer said Blakely is accused in the indictment of having a 22-caliber pistol in the glove compartment of his car on a trip to nearby Potstown.

Paige Blakely Sr., 59, and his wife Sarah, 53, were found shot to death last March 28 in an upstairs bedroom of their Potstown home. Police said the couple had been drugged and then shot. No weapon was found.

staged another series of raids Friday night. They arrested hundreds of persons, chiefly in Cape Town and Durban.

Police said these raids are designed to round up criminal elements, but persons suspected of political subversion—whites as well as nonwhites—also are being taken.

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—A military plane crashed and burned Friday in Angola, killing the commander of the Portuguese army there and 17 other persons, officials announced.

The commander was Gen. Silva Freire. Other victims were 11 army and air force officers, three sergeants and three civilians.

A Lusitania news agency dispatch from Luanda, the capital, said the plane, a DC3, overshot a landing strip at Chitido, near the South African border, hit a tree and exploded. There were no survivors.

PARIS (AP)—President De Gaulle led a brisk Armistice Day parade down the Champs Elysees today and placed a wreath beside the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier under the Arch of Triumph.

A crowd of several thousand broke into applause as De Gaulle arrived for the brief ceremony by the flickering flame that keeps vigil over the tomb. There were scattered whistles and catcalls, apparently from opponents of his Algerian policy. De Gaulle later placed a wreath at the statue of a World War I statesman, George Clemenceau.

MOSCOW (AP)—Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky said in an article published today that wars can be avoided.

"Events in recent years have confirmed the correctness of the conclusion drawn for the first time by the 20th Congress (in 1956) of the Communist party of the Soviet Union that it is now-days possible to prevent wars," Malinovsky wrote in the newspaper Red Star.

TONBRIDGE, England (AP)—A thief who broke into ancient Penshurst Place, the home of Viscount de l'Isle and Dudley, passed up silver and art treasures and stole personal relics of the late British war hero Lord Gort.

The missing articles include Lord Gort's field marshal's baton, Lord de l'Isle, Lord Gort's son-in-law, is in Australia, where he is governor-general.

GENERAL PAUL Many Frown On

son in America. But there seem to be some who, through misunderstanding, or by reason of temperament, or religion, and some who, almost deliberately, demand appeasement and compromise. I say that the voice of the great majority of the American people thunders a resounding, No More Appeasement.

"I personally, hung my head in shame when I read that the government of this great nation actually begged the Soviet Union not to set off their 50-megaton bomb. How can we sink? Communists respect force and force alone. No one in their right mind wants war, but there are some things worse than death, and communistic slavery is one. Once the bear hugs you, it is for keeps.

"We must have moral courage, for we have a tremendous job to do. Do you realize that until recently the Bible was the most widely published translated book in the world, and that today it has been replaced by the writings of Lenin? This comes from a report by UNESCO—which certainly cannot be called biased toward the western powers. Those who rationalize that the way to contain this atheistic ideology is constantly to retreat are wrong—morally wrong—intellectually wrong, and just plain commonsense wrong. If one continues to give ground, and principle, time after time, after time, soon there just is no more ground, or principles, left to give.

"So let's be realistic. As we are now headed, we are losing the cold war. We need to give up this attitude of defeatism which seems to overwhelm us. We must keep strong—strong spiritually, strong morally, strong economically and above all, strong in courage. We can not relax our vigilance one moment. And we must spread our ideas and our ideology. We have got to reverse this feeling of 'I'd rather be red than dead' which is spreading here and throughout the free world. The Communist insidious propaganda is poisoning minds everywhere.

CONQUERED CHINA

"Just for example, let's look at this propaganda about the Sino-Soviet break. In one of his early speeches Lenin said: 'To conquer the world, we must first conquer Asia. To conquer Asia, we must conquer China.' Well, that has been done. And the Chinese-Communist-imperialism has spread to outer Mongolia, North Korea, North Vietnam, Laos, Tibet, and is still oozing into the crevices and cracks that appear in adjacent countries. Right now, one of every four people in the world is Chinese—within this century the ratio will very likely be 1 to 2. Let us glance quickly at their economy. Eighty per cent of the production of the Chinese red area is agriculture. The Soviets furnish all the heavy machinery, all weaponry, all ammunition—they allow no spare-parts inventory. Do you still believe there is a bad split between them? I don't. And if anything happens, Red China will certainly not be on our side. Surely they must have disagreements, as do we and our allies, but the whole Chinese economy is based on Soviet Russia. They can't break off, even if they want to."

Many expressed disappointment, however, that the Indian leader did not advance more concrete proposals than a generalized appeal for political and cultural cooperation.

Interpretations of what he did propose varied.

U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said the idea of a year devoted to cooperation was a good one but hardly new. The United States, he said, had been cooperating with nations for years.

One African delegate quoted a saying "When there is too much salt in the dish it is hard to improve."

"There is too much trouble at the U.N. now for Mr. Nehru's suggestions to have much effect," he said.

India itself has been one of the most controversial members of the United Nations in recent years. It has been accused of aggravating the explosive disarmament problem by trying to equate the Soviet Union's recent giant explosions in the air with U.S. underground testing.

Midway Firemen To Buy Pumper

The Midway Fire Co. approved the purchase of a 750-gallon pumper with full equipment at a cost of $23,000 at a special meeting Wednesday evening.

Company president George E. Becker stated that the pumper and equipment were ordered from Irvin J. Houck, Hanover, fire fighting equipment and apparatus supplier.

The pumper will be mounted on a chassis to be furnished by the Valley Motor Co., Hanover. Delivery is scheduled for next spring.

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—When an out-of-town motorist ran out of gas in suburban Greece, an obliging policeman brought him a canful.

When they started to pour the gasoline into the car, it ran out on the street.

Police said the car's gas tank had dropped off a few miles back,

Nehru's Plea For Moratorium On Cold War

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's call for a moratorium on the cold war sets an elusive goal for the diplomats who must deal with East-West differences.

Many delegates felt the Indian leader's suggestion to the General Assembly Friday that the 103 U.N. members cease political bickering and devote a year to harmonious pursuits is admirable in concept but utopian in fact. He called for cooperation in all fields—"political, cultural or whatever."

To comply fully with such a scheme, the world body would have to set aside for a year consideration of such overriding issues as disarmament and the stopping of nuclear weapons tests—tests which Nehru condemned as basically evil.

It would also virtually rule out debate on the many colonial questions foremost in the minds of the U.N.'s 49 Asian and African members. These questions involve attacks of most of the big powers and are closely intertwined with cold war issues.

Various delegates hailed Nehru's call for a united attempt to avoid the terror of nuclear disaster instead of thinking about "burrowing under the earth like rats in a hole."

Many expressed disappointment, however, that the Indian leader did not advance more concrete proposals than a generalized appeal for political and cultural cooperation.

Interpretations of what he did propose varied.

U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said the idea of a year devoted to cooperation was a good one but hardly new. The United States, he said, had been cooperating with nations for years.

One African delegate quoted a saying "When there is too much salt in the dish it is hard to improve."

"There is too much trouble at the U.N. now for Mr. Nehru's suggestions to have much effect," he said.

India itself has been one of the most controversial members of the United Nations in recent years. It has been accused of aggravating the explosive disarmament problem by trying to equate the Soviet Union's recent giant explosions in the air with U.S. underground testing.

Midway Firemen To Buy Pumper

The Midway Fire Co. approved the purchase of a 750-gallon pumper with full equipment at a cost of $23,000 at a special meeting Wednesday evening.

Company president George E. Becker stated that the pumper and equipment were ordered from Irvin J. Houck, Hanover, fire fighting equipment and apparatus supplier.

The pumper will be mounted on a chassis to be furnished by the Valley Motor Co., Hanover. Delivery is scheduled for next spring.

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—When an out-of-town motorist ran out of gas in suburban Greece, an obliging policeman brought him a canful.

When they started to pour the gasoline into the car, it ran out on the street.

Police said the car's gas tank had dropped off a few miles back, wished, he could appeal the matter to court.

Clapsaddle replied that he was not the one who asked a recount. The three candidates has been asked to be present for the recount and Clapsaddle and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Maddox were present, along with Edward Stine, one of the tellers for the official count who was present as official Democratic representative, and Commissioner Clerk Crosby N. Hartzell who had been designated as Republican representative.

The official count of the remainder of the ballots had been completed by the county commissioners sitting at the election board and Tellers Edward Stine and Luther Lady by 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. They began their duties at noon.

However the Mt. Joy vote was not added to the official count, pending the results of Friday night's tabulation of the school director vote. As a result no total tabulations were made of the vote cast. The election board also decided that since about 130 absentee and military ballots are scheduled to be counted, starting at 10 o'clock Friday morning, they will wait until those votes have been counted to compile total figures for the county and states candidates and the five amendments.

Phil Simkins, the bureau's regional director, could not say how much Hollywood notables, or other certain individuals, were claiming. But he said some payments began Tuesday.

"We urge the insured not to operate under shock, not to complete their listings under duress," said Simkins.

Simkins estimates 30 per cent of the amounts claimed will be for homes, nearly 70 per cent for personal belongings. "You must remember that fine art can build some of these personal claims up pretty fast," says Simkins.

Some homes in the area, he says, contained collections of original paintings and statuary. Most policies will also pay holders for additional living expenses—the motel rooms and restaurant meals taken while a family's home is rebuilt.

Simkins said Bel-Air victims usually were insured to full value. To recover valuables buried in debris but not destroyed, a shaker device similar to a gold-mining mechanism sifts ruins where a homeowner recalls leaving such items.

Simkins estimated adjusters should finish their work within three weeks.

ABL HAS MORE CAGE ISSUES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

American Basketball League officials, beset by numerous headaches in the opening weeks of the new professional circuit, were scurrying for the aspirin bottle again today over the case of Pittsburgh Rens' star Connie Hawkins.

Hawkins, who scored 14 points as the Eastern Division leading Rens whipped the Washington Tapers 117-88 Friday night and is one of the league's top scorers with a 24-plus scoring average, has had his eligibility status questioned by several coaches.

A New York schoolboy stand-out, Hawkins attended the University of Iowa in 1960, but dropped out due to scholastic difficulties. The coaches claim an ABL rule prohibits Hawkins from playing in the league until his college class graduates. That would place Hawkins on the sidelines until 1964.

But Pittsburgh owner Leany Litman says the owners voted to waive the rule because of economic hardship on the part of Hawkins' family. "Hawkins couldn't go back to school and he needed a job badly. The best thing he could do was play basketball," Litman said.

The officials will meet in Chicago Sunday to consider the case. While the Rens were bringing the ABL's best record to 3-1, Cleveland beat San Francisco 97-88 and knocked the Saints off the top rung in the West. Kansas City 121-101 winners over Hawaii, and Los Angeles, which defeated Chicago 121-106, are tied for first.

Green-eyed Ina, 20-year-old free-skating stylist from Krefeld, Germany, missed the Hershey run last year because of movie commitments in Germany but is scheduled to make her first appearance on the local scene for the 26th annual edition. Her ravishing beauty won her a motion picture contract with Germany's top studio where she has already made one movie—with skiing star Toni Sailer—and is slated for a straight dramatic role in another.

Ina's first love, however, is skating. She won renown as one of the world's top amateur performers and captured the German championship three times. One of the most popular European skating stars in history, she has been skating since the age of 10 and studied parts of three seasons at the famed Broadmoor Rink in Colorado Springs. Ina's ability to mesh her interpretive dance and ballet moves with her dazzling free-skating already has placed her up with professional skating's top female performers.

OPPOSE UNION DRUG BUSINESS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Philadelphia Association of Retail Druggists went to court Friday in an all-out attempt to block a labor union from setting up a mail-order pharmacy for its members.

In a suit filed in Dauphin County Court, association attorneys asked for an order, voiding a license granted by the State Pharmacy Board which permits the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union to set up the mail order operation.

The association also sought to stop the Pharmacy board from issuing a license to Bazaar Pharmacy, Inc., to erect a discount pharmacy house in the "Bazaar of Nations" shopping center in Delaware County.

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
Manuscript Will Be Here On Nov. 19: The second draft of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address will be publicly displayed from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon until Monday, November 19, the 88th anniversary of the delivery of that immortal address by President Abraham Lincoln when he dedicated the Gettysburg National Cemetery. It will be displayed in the Gettysburg National Bank.

Announcement of the exposition of the valuable manuscript was made by John D. Lippy Jr., president of the Lincoln Fellowship, who secured the release of the document from the Library of Congress.

Local Furniture Factories Are Sold: M. C. Jones Retires From Industry He Served For 46 Years: Acquisition of the factories of the local furniture companies by a syndicate with extensive manufacturing interests throughout the country and his own retirement from the furniture business after 33 years continuous management of the local plants were announced today by M. C. Jones, general manager of the local companies.

The transaction, closed this morning, includes all manufacturing assets of the Reaser Furniture company, the Gettysburg Furniture company, the Gettysburg Panel company, the Gettysburg Chair company, all of Gettysburg and the Hanover Cabinet company, Hanover. The Stouck-Reaser Lumber company, Gettysburg, is not included in the sale and will continue to operate under its present ownership and management.

Larry Kepner, 4, Born Without Legs, Plays Like Normal Boy With New 14-Inch "Stubbies": Modern orthopedic science, plus training and psychiatry, have almost literally put Larry Kepner, the Mummaburg boy born without legs, on his feet. Larry, who won't be five years old until February, is walking and playing almost like a normal child on his "stubbies," artificial limbs attached to the lower part of his torso. The "stubbies" are 14 inches long. In a few years he will receive a new set.

Another Barn Destroyed In Bonneville: A barn on the Peter Kaiser estate, to the rear of the John Weaver store in Bonneville, burned Thursday night, with Bonneville Fire Chief Francis Staub estimating the loss at $1,000.

The half century old 20 to 30 frame barn was completely empty at the time of the fire, firemen said. They added that a number of nearby residents reported they heard a sound like an explosion coming from the barn a few seconds before it burst into flame.

A similar explosion was reported as immediately preceding a previous fire, last Thursday night, which destroyed the barn of T. Ambrose Myers at Bonneville.

Tourist Travel In Park Still Heavy: Tourist visitation to the Gettysburg battlefield continued high for this season of the year, over the past week-end. On Saturday there were 1,034 visitors in autos and 64 who arrived in two buses, a total of 1,134 for the day. Sunday 1,764 totted by car and 59 in two buses, a total of 1,823.
The total for the week-end was 2,961. There were 40 guided tours Saturday and 65 Sunday.
Auto Skids On Its Roof: Driver Unhurt: Stanley Starnes, 29, Gardner R. 2, narrowly escaped when the automobile he was driving overturned on Legislative Route 21008 near the Pine road and skidded along on its roof.
State police reported Starnes lost control of the car and it ran off the left side of the road, tore down about 57 feet of fence and then rolled over on its roof. He escaped with a hand laceration.

Today's Talk

PULSE
Pulse tells about condition. It tells the story of the heart which is the most important organ in the body.
Pulse tells the truth, too. I like to put my fingers upon the pulse of one's mind that I may measure the inner workings of that organ of mystery, wonder and power.

There are few minds that work smoothly. So when you find one that does, you want to stay within its influence.
People do not have to talk for you to hear them express their thoughts. How often instances arise and you say: "I knew you thought that way!" It merely means you felt your friend's pulse and that it worked well.
The world has a pulse. And if you can put your fingers to it so that you may feel its strong, rhythmic throbbing, you thereby assert your right to its great domain of beauty, mystery, and aspiration.

When I read a book I imagine I can feel the pulse of that writer's aspiration, deep desire, and dreams. I touch his hope. I associate with his impulses and I lead my own thought to his that it may melt into something solid, substantial and eternal.

When the nurse touches her fingers of her patient's wrist she may learn much, but she will say little.
And so we may get the spirit of our friend, of the world, of written or expressed thought through the pulse of these things, but the essence of life lies even deeper. It lies in the interpretation we put upon what we find.

Just Folks

AN ORDEAL
He stood before the cannon's mouth and urged his men ahead.
He held an angry mob at bay when other turned and fled;
Upon a sinking ship he cried: "If worst comes to the worst I'll go down with her — go ahead, and save the women first!"
But when his host said smilingly, "I'll introduce you now To twenty guests you haven't met," the sweat stood on his brow.

Within the parlor there they sat, rich men and women fair,
All eagerly awaiting him who stood and lingered there.
"Old man," he said, and trembled, too, "I'd rather face the foe Than have you lead me round that room; I dread the ordeal so.
I'd rather storm a citadel, where angry madmen roost,
Than meet a lot of strangers now; I hate being introduced."

STUDENTS WILL WALK HOME IN NEW CD PLAN

By PAUL POORMAN
Of The Centre Daily Times
STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—The college area schools have adopted an emergency evacuation plan for students, and the heart of the plan is the foot.

Mindful of the possibility of nuclear attack school officials felt some sort of emergency plan should be adopted to get children home if the situation ever did arise. "If nothing happens, we haven't lost anything. If something does happen, we've gained a lot," said supervising principal Roy S. Jamison.

Essentially, the plan involves students walking home. The college area presently transports about 3,500 of its 5,600 students, but the emergency plan calls for about half of those presently transported to walk home.

SAVE MUCH TIME
All who live within a certain distance—45 minutes for junior and senior high, 30 minutes for elementary—will be told to walk. Others will be taken on buses which will, beginning soon, be permanently stationed at the various schools.

"We feel many students could walk home in less time than it would take buses to get everyone home," Jamison said. "Of course, we're not allowing any time to stop for a soda or to visit with friends, and we're counting on the youngsters using all their native instincts—climbing walls, cutting across lawns and the like—to get home in the most direct manner."

The School Board, in adopting the emergency plan, noted that in event of attack, the parents will want the children home. Thus the emergency plan makes no provisions at all for sheltering children at the schools.

The school plans a test of the new plan soon, with wide advance notice, to be followed by an unpublicized test.

COACH SCOFFS FINE OF $250

BOSTON (AP)—Slapped with a $200 fine and a warning by the National Basketball Association, Boston Coach Red Auerbach today says he'll continue to protest to the officials if he feels justified.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff announced the fine for "gross misconduct" at the Boston-Detroit game in Philadelphia Thursday night. He said Auerbach would be suspended for three games the next time he is ejected from a contest.

Rookie referee Joe Gushue's technical foul call against the champion Celtics had touched off the incident.

"I was protecting my ball players and if Bob Cousy gets the treatment he received in Philadelphia again I'll do it over," Auerbach said.

Auerbach said Gushue "kept watching me and not the game. Cousy, meanwhile, was getting a real going over, so much so that he finally protested and when he did so this Gushue hit him with a technical."

"I jumped up and before I could say a word, bang—a technical for me."

Barbara Anthony and Becky Landis, second best dressed couple, and Robert Moul, funniest. Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shaffer, Police Chief and Mrs. John Bechtel, J. Faber Wildasin, Brenda Shultz, and Miss Sandy Grover, Miss Flaming Knight of 1961.

CLAIM WOMAN CAST 2 VOTES IN 3 ELECTIONS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Mrs. Mary J. Zimmerman, a 30-year-old Democratic state employee from Harrisburg, faced charges today of voting twice in each of the last three elections in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Zimmerman waived a preliminary hearing before Alderman Joseph Demma Friday night, then posted $1,000 bond for her release. She was ordered to appear for trial in January.

Dauphin County Dist. Atty. Martin H. Lock contends Mrs. Zimmerman voted in both Harrisburg and Lewistown in last Tuesday's election, in the primary elections in May and in the 1960 general election.

Locu said Mrs. Zimmerman's voting activities came to light through an anonymous telephone call and a subsequent investigation by County Detective Anthony C. Parry.

Mrs. Zimmerman is employed as a stenographer in the state's Sales Tax Bureau at a yearly salary of $4,551. She formerly served as secretary to Thomas K. Hodges, one-time press secretary for former Gov. George M. Leader. Her husband, Jack E. Zimmerman, is a former president of the Dauphin County Young Democrats and an employee of the State Public Instruction Department.

Extra Point Misses Fatal To Delone Which Loses To DeMatha Stags 14-12

Extra point conversions were the big factor as Coach Buckey Kempton's Delone Catholic Squires, despite playing a tremendously improved brand of football, dropped a close 14-12 decision in the season's finale to DeMatha High School, of Hyattsville, Md., Friday night on the McSherrystown field.

Both teams played a hard nose brand of football for 60 minutes giving the fans plenty to talk about. Delone inserted several quick pass patterns into its offense while DeMatha did not go to the air once during the game. It didn't have to as it registered 330 yards on the ground, grinding out 18 first downs.

For the first 8:05 minutes of the ball game it looked as if DeMatha was going to have little trouble with the Squires. The Maryland Stags took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards to their first score. The drive covered 14 plays and three helpful Delone penalties. Most of the gains were 10- to 13-yard end sweeps and short up-the-middle plunges. The climax came with 3:55 remaining in the first period when hard running, high stepping Garret Ford rounded right end from 10 yards out. The first of two important extra points followed when Don Foran's placement hit the cross bar and bounced over giving the visitors a 7-0 lead.

DELONE PASSES CLICK

The Squires then put on a show of their own. Kempton's charges, connecting on four for four passes, returned the kickoff 60 yards to make the score 7-6. Quarterback Bill Timmins hit Bob Conrad twice, Frank Linn and Dick Rosensteel for a total of 44 yards. The key play was a 14-yard aerial to Conrad for the score with 40 seconds gone by in the second quarter. A bad pass from center made Timmins rush his placement attempt and it went off to the right.

Following the kickoff, it took the Stags just two plays to score their second and last TD. With the ball resting on the DeMatha 32 following a 22 yard return by John Barbieri, Ford toted the ball 16 yards to a first down on the visitors' 48. On the next play from scrimmage, Ford took a short pitch-out, moved to the far side of the field and streaked 52 yards down the sidelines for the score. Following two unsuccessful attempts for the extra point, during which Delone was penalized half the distance both times for being off sides, Mickey Melcher bolted bolted off right guard on the third try to make the score 14-6 at the half.

Delone took the kickoff at the start of the second half, and advanced the ball 77 yards before giving it up on the DeMatha six yard line on downs. The Stags then ran the clock out in the third period by reversing the direction of the pigskin and moving to the Delone 16. At this point Ray Hill fumbled where Mark Long recovered to give the Squires possession.

TIMMINS GOES 83

On the first play from scrimmage, Bill Timmins eluded three would-be tacklers and galloped 83 yards to the DeMatha one yard before he was brought down on a shoe-string tackle by Mickey Melcher. At this point Chuck Elder bounced off left tackle and into the end zone for the score. Again another bad pass from center made Timmins hurry to placement, but this time it dribbled two yards.

DeMatha ran the clock out by controlling the ball. The stage advanced from their own 31-yard line to the Delone five where the game ended.

Delone pulled down the curtain on its 31st football season. The Squires won one, lost seven and tied one contest.

This was in reply Friday to questions about a New York Times dispatch from Saigon, the South Viet Nam capital. It said the U.S. Air Force had begun a huge supply and training program to strengthen the country's defenses against intensified Communist guerrilla military operations.

TITANS IN DO OR DIE GAME WITH OAKLAND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York's Titans, still in the thick of the race for the Eastern Division championship, meet Oakland at New York Saturday night to get a busy and vital weekend on the way in the American Football League.

The Titans can hang close if they beat the Raiders because they are only one game out of first place at the present time.

The Eastern Division leaders—Boston and Houston—clash at Houston Sunday afternoon in one of the big battles of the season. Boston is only a half-game to the good over Houston, the defending champion.

The Western Division has two important games Sunday. The No. 1 contest matches San Diego, unbeaten leader of the division, with Denver.

CAN WIN TITLE

San Diego can take the Western Division championship by whipping the six-time losers or it can lose and still capture the title in the event second-place Dallas loses to Buffalo at Dallas.

There's little to indicate that San Diego, featuring its talented passer, Jack Kemp and mighty runner, Paul Lowe, won't wrap up the title. Denver hasn't won a game in three weeks and the last time it met San Diego it was clouted 37-0.

Buffalo is in the Eastern Division cellar, but the last game the Bills won was a 27-24 decision over Dallas a month ago. Since then Buffalo has taken defeats from Boston, Houston and Oakland.

ALL PRESSURE OFF

Dallas has been trounced by Houston and Boston twice. With all pressure off the two might put on one of those fantastic scoring duels. Neither team has a good enough defense to stop a bread wagon.

Oakland is running last in the Western Division but the Raiders have just won a game—they beat Buffalo 31-22 last Sunday. With Tom Flores doing the throwing, the Raiders just might wind up New York's hopes of figuring in the championship. While the Titans are now in fair shape to make a run for it, a loss would just about spell fias to their ambitions since Boston and Houston are in such close contention for first place.

DeMatha ran the clock out by controlling the ball. The stage advanced from their own 31-yard line to the Delone five where the game ended.

FROSH DEFEAT STEVENS VIA LATE SAFETY

A safety in the late minutes of the ball game gave the Gettysburg College freshman football team a happy ending to its successful 1961 season as the Little Bullets edged Stevens Trade 14-13 Friday afternoon in Lancaster.

With Stevens holding a slim 12-10 lead and about six minutes of play remaining, the club's punter, Larry Zimmerman, went back to boot on his own 17-yard line. The yearlings' fast-moving 235-pound tackle, Bob Rudolph, went charging through the line to block the punt and sent the ball spinning into the end zone. Before guard Van Lurton had a chance to recover for a TD, the pigskin rolled out of the end zone giving Gettysburg the game winning two-point safety.

Coach Jack Ridinger's yearlings were the first to break the game open as they tallied in the late minutes of the first quarter. With the ball resting on the Gettysburg 32, Don Enders faded back and fired a pass to the Hershey flash, Ken Snyder, who took the pigskin in on the Stevens' 40-yard line and raced the remaining distance up the far sidelines to cover the 68-yard TD play. Snyder's kick of the point was good.

STEVENS GETS PAIR

Stevens Trade bounced back and scored twice in the second period to move in front 13-6. Seaback Vito Galle capped a 56-yard drive by running wide around left end from seven yards out for a score. John Chowansky made the placement. Minutes later Larry Zimmerman fired an aerial to Dave Truax, 5'8" halfback, which covered 52 yards and the final Stevens' score. This time Chowansky's kick was wide.

The Little Bullets tallied late in the first half when Kenny Snyder streaked 44 yards up the near sidelines dodging three tacklers and adding his 40th point of the season. Snyder's placement attempt was blocked by Larry Ruhl, 6' guard.

The Bullet yearlings in closing the season hung up one of their best records since Jack Ridinger took over, winning four and dropping one contest.

ADIOS BUTLER PICKED TO WIN HIS LAST RACE

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — Adios Butler bids goodbye to harness racing tonight and if the world's fastest pacer doesn't win the $50,000 National Pacing Derby at Roosevelt Raceway it would be an astounding upset.

Virtually everyone in the sulky set expects the 5-year-old horse to close out his career with his 13th straight victory, his 37th in 50 starts and possibly another world record. He is the 1-to-4 choice in the morning line, despite having a 10-horse field. By post time — approximately 10:10 p.m. EST — may be as low as the legal 1-20.

Chambersburg	2	0	1	245

Friday's Score
Carlisle, 12; Chambersburg 12 (tie).

Finis was written to the 33-year history of the South Penn Football Conference, once one of the strongest in the state, Friday evening at Carlisle where Chambersburg and Carlisle battled to a 12-12 deadlock before 10,000 fans to reign as co-champions for 1961.

The conference will disband after the 1961-1962 basketball campaign.

Each team picked up 10 first downs with Chambersburg holding to rushing advantage, 195 yards to 148, and also the passing margin, 69-29.

Chambersburg built up a 12-0 advantage on a two-yard plunge by Jack Mull in the first period and a six-yard thrust by Dick Nye in the second quarter. Carlisle tabbed a touchdown in the second frame on a 10-yard scamper by Bob Nye and the tying TD in the third frame on a one-yard plunge.

The Parochial School Football League held a turkey banquet Thursday night at the home of McSherrystown Lodge 720, Loyal Order of Moose, McSherrystown. About 150 boys, coaches and guests were in attendance.

The league, composed of youngsters from the upper grades of Catholic elementary schools in York and Adams Counties, has been operating for several years but this was its first banquet.

The championship this fall was won by St. Vincent's School, Hanover. Other teams participating included Annunciation School, McSherrystown; Immaculate Conception School, New Oxford; St. Joseph's Bonneville, and Sacred Heart, Conewago.

Rev. Francis M. Lahout, assistant pastor of the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown, and supervisor of the league, served as toastmaster at the dinner.

Those who spoke included the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, pastor of Annunciation Church; Rev. Joseph Brown, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church; Rev. Louis W. Forging, pastor of St. Joseph's, Bonneville, and Edouard Grenier, sports editor of The Evening Sun. Richard Staub, coach of the Delone Catholic High School Freshman team, was introduced.

The speakers lauded the boys for their participation in the grade school football program and for their conduct in league games. The men who give of their time and effort to coach the youngsters were praised for their unselfish work.

It was announced that the championship trophy, a traveling award which must be won three times for permanent possession, is now on display at St. Vincent's School.

3 SCHOLASTIC TEAMS SEW UP GRID TITLES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Westinghouse, Avella and Lock Haven sewed up key conference championships Friday night to highlight a tapered-off version of scholastic football activity in Pennsylvania.

Westinghouse clinched the Pittsburgh City League Title by dumping Langley 27-7. Avella nailed down the WPIAL-Class B crown with a 13-0 triumph over Washington Twp. and Lock Haven took top honors in the West Penn conference by virtue of Tyrone's 39-13 trouncing of Hollidaysburg.

Ironically, although Lock Haven chalked up its 20th straight win by whipping Phillipsburg-Osceola 25-7, the triumph had no bearing on the intricate West Penn conference race.

3-WAY SCRAMBLE
Under the conference rating system, it was all up to Tyrone and Hollidaysburg in a game of also rans.

Had Hollidaysburg won, Chief Logan would have been the West Penn champ.

Meanwhile, the WPIAL-Class AA conference remains a three-way scramble between Beaver Falls, Wilkensburg and Monessen.

Defending champ Beaver Falls made it 20 in a row Friday night with a 34-14 nonconference win over Pittsburgh South Catholic. Monessen polished off Donora in easy fashion 33-0. Wilkensburg was idle.

LEADERS WIN
Moving to the eastern end of the state, Old Forge and Coal Twp. took big steps toward wrapping up the Northern and Southern division championships of the sprawling East Penn conference.

Old Forge dumped mighty Hazleton 27-19 while Coal Twp. jumped Berwick 26-7. West Scranton, a challenger to Old Forge in the northern division, blanked Bethlehem 39-0.

Kelso Favored In D.C. International

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Kelso, the American champion and hailed as the best racehorse in a generation, ruled the odds-on choice today to win the 10th running of the Washington D.C. International, a $100,000 invitation race that brings together eight starters from six countries.

Eddie Arcaro, America's premier stakes jockey, will ride the 4-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard DuPont's Bohemia Stable over the grass course.

Opposing Kelso, who has won seven of his eight starts this year, are two Russian horses, Zabeg and Irtysch, Misti from France, Prencipal from Venezuela, Underboy from Denmark, Sail Cheol from Ireland and T.V. Lark, the second American entry.

Fair weather, with temperatures in the 50s, is forecast for the 1 1/2-mile race which usually attracts many diplomats and high government officials from nearby Washington.

Post time is approximately 3:45 p.m. EST.

MAINTAINS 2 STROKE LEAD AT BEAUMONT

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The crowds keep following the big names in the $20,000 Beaumont Invitational Golf Tournament, but the least worried of the neglected entries is Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

The slender 32-year-old simply goes about his business of getting the ball in the cup.

With only nine persons trailing his threesome, Fairfield rifled a one-under par 70 Friday to maintain a two-stroke edge on the field at the halfway point with a 36-hole total of 136.

Fairfield, who created a stir with a five-under 66 in Thursday's opening round, laughed it off when he was asked about the gallery pursuing such top figures as Doug Sanders, Jay Hebert and Bob Rosburg.

KENNEDY LAYS WREATH, TALKS IN ARLINGTON

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy goes to Arlington National Cemetery on this Veterans Day to honor the dead there and the millions who served and still live.

The program at the Tomb of the Unknowns, where the President was to speak briefly after laying a wreath, set the tone for ceremonies across the country.

The occasion was solemn and the background of events grim. The nation was mobilizing to defend itself against a possible war. The hour for the Arlington Ceremony was 11 a.m.—the time of day when the Armistice ended World War I, fought, it was said then, to end all wars. There have been two major conflicts since—World War II and the Korean War.

BRIEF CEREMONY
The schedule for the ceremony was brief—a matter of a few minutes including the time for the President's remarks.

Kennedy came to make his speech both as a President and as a veteran. In World War II he was a PT boat captain, fighting against big ships with little craft in the far corners of the Pacific.

There are about 22-million veterans who served in the U.S. armed forces. About 15 million served in World War II and about 900,000 of these were still in service or came back to serve in the Korean War. The remainder of the veterans served in World War I, the Spanish-American War, or in other, smaller conflicts, or were in the armed forces in peacetime.

Stalingrad Now Called Volgograd

LONDON (AP) — Remember the battle of Volgograd?
Clue: It was a turning point in the German-Russian phase of World War II.

Volgograd is on the Volga. In czarist times it was called Tsaritsyn. Still draw a blank?

Well, then, maybe the name Stalingrad will help.

The Russians, rewriting history, substituted the name Volgograd for Stalingrad Friday to go along with the downgrading of Joseph Stalin.

Volgograd—the new name—is obviously for the Volga River. The city sprawls across both banks of the Volga. It has a population of about 300,000.

Assassination Plot To Be Investigated

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A report that the Minutemen, a self-proclaimed civil defense guerrilla band, planned to assassinate the governor and attorney general in case of war has been investigated and found untrue, Dep. Atty. Gen. Arlo E. Smith said Friday.

Smith said officers of the attorney general's Criminal Division, of which he is acting chief, were continuing their investigation.

"We don't know that they have automatic weapons, but we believe that most of their statements to the press regarding membership and large caches of weapons is just talk," he said.

Possession of machineguns and heavy weapons by individuals is illegal in California.

MOLATOV IS CALLED HOME FROM VIENNA

By ERIC WAHA
VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A Vienna-Moscow express train bore former Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov home today to face the consequences of his denouncement last month by the Soviet Communist party.

The 71-year-old Bolshevik, a loser in top level in-fighting between Communist theoreticians, slipped out of Vienna virtually unnoticed Friday night. He had been a quiet resident of this city for more than a year as Soviet delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency—the atoms-for-peace organization.

Molotov went to the Soviet Embassy Friday. Police and news-men who maintained a watch on the building said they did not see him depart. An unexplained power failure in the night blacked out the area around the embassy for about 20 minutes.

MAY END CAREER
Austrian authorities confirmed that Molotov and his wife, Paulina, boarded the Vienna-Moscow express here and crossed the border into Czechoslovakia at Hohenau at 11 p.m.

The journey could close the book on the public career of the Soviet official who dropped from his Foreign Ministry post and membership in the politbureau under Joseph Stalin to disgrace and relative obscurity under Premier Khrushchev.

There was no indication of just what was in store for Molotov in Moscow although his denunciation by the congress was considered a preliminary to actual loss of party membership.

Khrushchev told newsmen in Moscow Tuesday that Molotov's fate "is of no practical importance. We haven't decided yet."

Informed sources said the staff of the Soviet Embassy here had taken the initial action that would lead to his formal ouster.

The 22nd Soviet Communist party congress last month demanded that Molotov and his followers be dismissed from the party for opposing Khrushchev's policies in the 1957 power struggle.

Ridicules Fallout Shelter Program

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The publisher of Scientific American magazine says the government-sponsored fallout shelter program is a "hoax and illusion" and psychologically dangerous because it "brings the third world war closer."

The publisher, Gerard Piel told a meeting of the Commonwealth Club of Northern California Friday the program "gives the sanction of action to the delusion that a thermonuclear war can be fought and survived. It encourages statesmen to take larger risks. It disengages the citizen from vigilance over the rationality and responsibility of his elected officials."

Wivell, Rocky Ridge. John Watkins was awarded a bushel of potatoes; Mrs. Karl Orndorff, a cake, and Bernard Wivell, the breakfast.

DUCK TAIL CUT STIRS UP FUSS

PERRY, Ga. (AP) — School officials and the parents of a senior boy suspended for wearing an unconventional haircut have reached a compromise: He'll keep his hair long but comb it differently. He will be permitted to return to school Monday.

The teen-ager, Stanley Sorrells, was suspended Tuesday from Perry High School because he wore his hair in a ducktail style, combing the sides back to a point, and the rest of it up.

Principal Eric Staples contended the hair style was associated with juvenile delinquency and the Houston County School Board agreed.

But the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Sorrells, rebelled. They said they didn't particularly like the ducktail, "but it's his hair, his hair, it's sort of a teen-age fad, and we think he's within his rights to wear it that way."

Sorrells said he and his son would still go to Superior Court next Wednesday for a hearing on Sorrells' suit challenging the school's right to prohibit unconventional haircuts.

SHOOTS WIFE THEN SUICIDES

CANONSBURG, Pa. (AP) — "Please come quick. My father and mother have had a terrible accident in the bedroom."

This was the plea Canonsburg police received from 10-year-old Karen Lane late Friday night.

Police went to the Lane home in nearby North Strabane Twp. and found the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lane.

Lane, 28, was shot through the heart by a high powered rifle. His wife, June, 27, was shot through the chest, deputy coroner John Yongy said.

State police, summoned to the scene, said Lane shot his wife and then himself.

Caroline Kennedy Loses 2 Of Her Pets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two of Caroline Kennedy's pets — "Debbie and Billie" — are no more.

The hamsters, who once burrowed into the news by escaping their cages and nosing through the White House in a weekend of freedom that ended with one being picked out of President Kennedy's bathtub, have died.

The news came without fanfare, a two-word response to a reporter's query about their health — "They're deceased."

When, where or how wasn't explained by the White House. Those questioned Friday weren't even sure Caroline, who will be 4 Nov. 27, had been told. She received the hamsters as a gift.

Yogi Berra of the Yankees has been in 11 World Series. Babe Ruth played in 10.

Bread, butter and the choice of white or chocolate milk will be served with each meal.

Many Teen-agers Have Credit Accounts Says Economist

By MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

How extensive are charge accounts for teen-agers? Forty percent of the girls queried in a city trade school in Massachusetts had charge accounts.

These teen-age accounts were spread over 11 different stores in four towns. Clothing and hair care supplies were the items most often bought on a charge account.

Massachusetts extension service personnel, who made the study, also interviewed the management of 52 stores in nine cities. Of these stores, 23 offered credit to the teen-ager in her own name.

What requirements did the store make for girls who wished to start charge accounts? Some stores would open a charge account for girls 14 years old; others put the age limit at 16. Some asked that parents co-sign the account; others didn't. All stores indicated that the amounts allowed for teen-age credit were small, none over $50.

Did the stores have a hard time making collections? One spokesman said, "Not so much as with adults." Others reported the "usual percentage, much like other accounts." More than half the stores indicated they watch teen-age accounts more closely than they do other accounts.

HAD LITTLE TROUBLE

Where is the napkin, the dinner fork, the salad fork, or the butter spreader placed on the table? This and other questions may arise when a person sets the table for family meals or special occasion meals.

To help the hostess increase her table setting know-how, a home study course on table service is available.

5-LESSON COURSE

The five-lesson course provides useful information for correct placing of the settings which adds to the beauty of the table. The course also gives details on the selection and care of table equipment, such as linens, china, and glassware. Suggestions are given for serving the various foods at a meal and for specific arrangements for buffet meals. Tea service and table etiquette are also described.

To obtain the complete course, send $1.25 to correspondence courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Make your check or money order payable to the Pennsylvania State University. All mailing costs are prepaid.

Liver deserves a regular spot on your shopping list. It's easy on the pocketbook, is a top source of iron, and contains more vitamin A than any other food. In addition, liver is a good source of protein, and the B-vitamins, thiamine and riboflavin.

PORK LIVER CHEAP

Pork liver is usually the lowest in price, calves liver the most expensive, and beef liver in between. The price of liver usually depends on the demand. Pork liver is in small demand so the price is low, but calves liver, which is very tasty and tender, is in greater demand and will cost more than pork liver.

Avoid overcooking or cooking liver at too high a temperature. Overcooking causes liver to become tough, dark and gives it a strong flavor.

Liver is usually fried, but it may be used in a stew, loaf, or casserole. For a delicious casserole, cut a pound of beef or pork liver in one-inch cubes, roll cubes in flour, then brown them in 3 tablespoons of fat. Then brown 3/4 cups raw cubed potatoes and 1 cup sliced onions in the fat. Combine liver, potatoes, onions and a 10 1/2 ounce can of cream of mushroom soup in a casserole. Bake at 350 degrees until the potatoes are done.

For more information on liver, write or call the agricultural extension office in the courthouse, Gettysburg, and ask for a copy of the leaflet, Variety Meats.

Cops Without Robbers In New TV Series Fred Gwynne And Joe E. Ross Star In "Car 54" Where Are You?

By CHARLES J. LEAVY
NAT HIKEN, one of radio's and television's top comedy writers, has come up with another winner. This time, however, it is not just a hilarious buffoonery as was his successful "The Phil Silvers Show" which depicted the brighter side of army life. Now he not only has a laugh riot going for him but actually has given television a new lease on life by presenting a heart-warming situation comedy, sans the mawkish clinches, sans canned laughter, sans maudlin situations, sans violence.

Basing his idea on the premise that the greatest comedy is found in true life situations, Hiken centers the new comedy, "Car 54, Where Are You?" NBC-TV (8:30-he noticed that policemen acted and sounded like any other men doing a good job.

In casting for the series, Hiken had to be careful to shy away from the handsome, sharpened jawed, fistswinging type of enforcement officers and find the character type that would represent most realistically the cop on the beat.

In teaming plump, gavel-voiced Joe E. Ross with lanky, lantern-jawed Fred Gwynne, Hiken came up with a casting masterpiece.

Although the two men's backgrounds are as different as their appearance, their talents are perfect—blended in their new role as Officers Toody and Muldoon.

WAS SINGING WAITER

Ross started as a singing waiter

uated in 1951. He started his acting career as an undergraduate by performing at the Brattle Theater in Cambridge, Mass. The Brattle Theater led to acting jobs in New York, including "Mrs. McThing" on Broadway and the film, "On the Waterfront." From 1954 to 1960 he wrote copy at a New York advertising agency, and filled numerous TV roles. He also wrote and illustrated several books. He is currently appearing on Broadway in the musical, "Irma La Douce."

FILMED IN BRONX

Most of the scenes for "Car 54" are shot in the streets of the Bronx and at the old Biograph Studios.

In addition to presenting the television viewer with an entertaining half hour, "Car 54, Where Are You?" may very well serve a dual purpose. With New York's finest being harried in recent months by a rash of assaults and refusals of assistance by citizens, the truly human side of the patrolman as presented in "Car 54" may go far toward giving New Yorkers and the rest of the nation a new and warmer regard for the man on the beat.

Fred Gwynne and Joe E. Ross as Officers Muldoon and Toody in "Car 54, Where Are You?"

9:00 p.m. E.S.T., Sundays), around "98 per cent" of the lives of most policemen in big cities. It dwells on their relationship with other officers, with their families and with average residents of the precinct neighborhood. It stresses character and comedy without ridicule of police.

SHOW HUMAN SIDE

"There are good cops, doing their jobs even though they are not fist-swinging crime busters," says Hiken. "We will show the human side of police life seldom, if ever, seen by the TV audience."

The idea for the new comedy series, "Car 54, Where Are You?" came to Hiken while visiting a New York precinct house where at the age of 16. He later became announcer for the cafe's show, told some jokes and became a full-time comedian. He went on to other club dates, often performing as a burlesque funster. He served in the Air Force during World War II, and, after his discharge, resumed his nightclub career. He appeared in several motion pictures and won the role of M/Sgt. Ritzik on "Bilko" when the show's star, Phil Silvers, and Hiken spotted him at a nightclub in Miami Beach.

Gwynne enlisted in the Navy at 18. After the war, he studied at the New York Phoenix School of Design for a year, then enrolled at Harvard and was grad-

Bing Crosby will be the chief commentator for the $50,000 amateur tournament at Monterey, Calif.

A select field of 150 top professional and a similar number of invited amateurs will participate in the event. Each golfer plays an 18-hole round at the three famed golf courses, Cypress Point, Monterey Peninsula Country Club and Pebble Beach, and then on the final day, the low 50 players play the final 18-holes of the tournament at Pebble Beach.

DONNA STONE finances a small business venture for Jeff in an endeavor to teach him the fundamentals of the free enterprise system in "The Paper Tycoon" on "The Donna Reed Show," Thursday, November 16. SHERIFF BODIE becomes the second most hated man in Lehigh when he champions the rights of the most hated man, Thackeray Smith, a tyrannical tycoon to whom everyone owes money, in "Retaliation" on "The Cheyenne Show" Monday, November 13.

FROM WEEKLY TV DIGEST: After two years of operation, Paramount Pictures' pay-TV system in Etobicoke, Canada, is still reportedly losing money . . . it's a federal crime now (due to a bill signed by Pres. Kennedy) for anybody to do malicious damage to TV, radio or other communications systems which may be needed for government use . . . Sears Roebuck is selling a color TV set for $449.95, allegedly the lowest list price for a color TV set to date.

HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

Judy Garland gets $150,000 for herself from her coming CBS-TV special . . . ASCAP is launching a huge promotion campaign to make the public familiar with the writers of hit tunes . . . Shirley MacLaine okayed a Project 20 "World of Shirley MacLaine" special . . . Vic Damone turned down an Ed Sullivan Show guest appearance because CBS-TV, Canada, is paying him $25,000 for an hour-long show at the same time Sullivan wanted him for less . . . Favorite femme on the "Have Gun—Will Travel" series seems to be Natalie Norwick, who has signed for her seventh guest lead . . . CBS-TV may take Leonard Bernstein out of his afternoon slot and give him a once-monthly prime night time airing . . . CBS-TV, which originally invested $400,000 in "My Fair Lady," figures to gross well over $10,000,000 from that investment . . . The rave reviews Steve Cochran got for his recent sympathetic role on "Bus Stop" gave him hopeful from now on that producers will stop thinking of him only as a "heavy" type.

ROCKIN' HOUSE:

Asked who she was dating these days, Dorothy Provine of "The Roaring 20s" retorted: "A plumber, carpenter, rug cleaners." Dorothy adds that her house, located above Hollywood's Sunset Strip, is "working on a nervous breakdown."

"How'd you like to come down and make mine a little better?" he asked.

BROWNING AND MILTON
HEAD WEST: The classics go western on ABC-TV, in episodes soon to be seen on "Lawman" and "The Cheyenne Show."

"Porphyria's Lover," an episode on "Lawman" Sunday, November 19, starring Peggie Castle, pegs its plot on the famous Robert Browning poem.

Later this season a story on "The Cheyenne Show," with Clint Walker starring, will be titled "The Harrigan," which derives its theme on a classic passage from Milton's "Paradise Lost."

Carole Wells Uses Yoga As Beauty Aid

"I use Yoga as a beauty aid, for figure control and to ease tension, like most people use cold creams, diets and tranquilizers," revealed Carole Wells on the set of "National Velvet," on NBC-TV, Mondays, (8:30 p.m. EST).

Carole who plays Lori Martin's older sister in the weekly family series, became interested in the intricate system of physical culture three years ago when she attended a lecture in Hollywood by Dr. P. K. Anand, professor of physiology at the All-India Institute of Medical Sciences of New Delhi.

"Research scientist have proven that the basic principles of Yoga are true," Carole said, "and, when practiced regularly, will result in a person gaining extraordinary physical and mental powers."

"My practice of the ancient science," she continued, "has enabled me to keep my weight under control, eliminated my adolescent skin problems and, more important, has enabled me to memorize the scripts for the show more rapidly and more completely than before."

Carole performs her prescribed Yoga exercises for 15 minutes upon arising in the morning, again during the lunch hour and for 20 minutes before dinner.

Timely Tip For Television Talent

His classmates in college dramatics were Charlton Heston, Carole Lawrence, Jeffrey Hunter and Jean Hagen. Like them, he spent every waking moment studying, reading, rehearsing and working with one goal in mind: Success in show business.

Today, at 34, he's already attained that goal 10 years ahead of schedule. In any given year, his name is seen on TV screen more than those of all his classmates—and yet he's a relative unknown to the mass of televisioners. The reason? He's behind the camera instead of in front of it.

As director of Allen Funt's top-rated "Candid Camera," Julio Di Benedetto has come a long way from those lean, striving years at Northwestern University. He credits his success to "one of the toughest decisions any actor has to face."

It happened eight years ago, he recalls. "I sat down one day to take stock of where I was at the age of 26 and suddenly realized that I didn't want to live the potential life of a performer. I knew that there was no such word as 'security' in the lexicon of show business. So I decided that, even if I knew I could become a star, TV production work was just as exciting and rewarding."

MARSEILLE, France (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said Friday he may retire from office after the Algerian issue is settled, sources who attended a closed meeting with him reported.

The 70-year-old president's seven-year term expires in 1966.

Any Questions?

Q. Wasn't Ginger Rogers supposed to have her own show this season?—J. H.

A. Yes, a pilot film was made, but it has not yet been sold.

Q. Is Craig Stevens of "Peter Gunn" related to Cary Grant? There is a great resemblance.

A. No, they are not even cousins.

Q. Did Frank Sinatra and Jo Stafford ever sing together on the same program?—H. H.

A. They were both vocalists with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra at the same time, many years ago.

Q. I recently saw the movie "An American Romance" on TV, and it featured an actor named Horace McNally. He looked a lot like Stephen McNally. Are they related or one and the same?

A. They are one and the same. Horace is his real name but has changed to Stephen for obvious reasons.
